Ms. Joanna E. Dember

Dear Ms. Dember:

Admiral Turner has asked me to thank you for your letter of 15 July, and for your invitation to address the Yale Political Union this fall. Unfortunately, the Admiral has so many events already scheduled into the foreseeable future that it is impossible to take on any additional commitments.

He appreciates your thinking of him, however, and wishes you all the best for a successful school year.

Sincerely,

A stylized, handwritten-style signature of Herbert E. Hetu.

Dear Admiral Turner:

On behalf of the Yale Political Union, I cordially invite you to speak to us this coming year. Over the years men and women in government, journalism, business, science, and the arts have helped to make the Union one of the liveliest forums for discussion of contemporary issues in the nation. Recent guests have included John Anderson, Bella Abzug, William F. Buckley, Jr., James Schlesinger, and Ann Landers. I would be honored and delighted to have you join us for an evening as a speaker at a Union meeting.

With over 1000 members, the Yale Political Union is the largest organization of its kind in America, and has become the major center at Yale for political discussion and debate. The standard format calls for an address followed by questions from the floor. We welcome your comments on your experiences or on some topic of political interest.

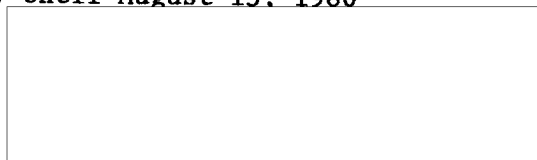

Arrangements for guest speakers normally include dinner with Union members and faculty fellows, a press conference if appropriate, and an address in the evening. We are quite willing, however, to adjust our format to fit your schedule. Almost any Sunday through Thursday from early September to mid-December will be convenient for us. The Political Union will reimburse you for travel expenses and provide accommodations should you wish to spend the night.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call or write me at the address below. I look forward to hearing from you and hope to have the honor and pleasure of welcoming you to Yale this fall.

Very truly yours,

Joanna E. Dember
